The Cheatcode in Action■■■

Step 1✓: Mine the Gold

■Action Step:

Grab a pen or open a blank document.

Write down your top 3 achievements, 3 failures, and 3 unshakeable lessons from your life or career or business. Don't hold back, list them all, even those you think are irrelevant.

Why This Works:

In each win, loss, or aha moment, there's a piece of wisdom or solution that others desperately need.

By listing them, you create a roadmap of potentially profitable ideas.

Step 2✓: Identify the Repeating Problem You Solve

■Action Step:

Look at your list and ask: "What problem keeps showing up, and who else is struggling with it?"

Why This Works:

The market pays for solutions to problems.

If you've tackled a problem multiple times, you have specialized insight, people will pay for that specialized insight.

Step 3✓: Package & Position

■Action Step:

- Decide how you'll deliver your solution, coaching, digital or physical product, consulting, speaking, or a hybrid approach.
- Create a simple outline: (a) The problem (b) Your unique approach or system (c) The promised transformation.

Why This Works:

- Clarity sells.
- By packaging your experiences, you transform intangible knowledge into tangible offers.

or

TRANSFORM (Reframe Pain into Product)

■Action: Use the “Lesson → Offer” Formula: “Because I survived [X], I can now teach others how to [Y].”

Example: “Because I failed to negotiate a salary, I created a 3-step script that landed clients $10k+ raises.”

Step 4✓: Test, Refine, & Price

■Action Step:

- Offer a beta version of your product or service to a small group or even a single client.
- Collect testimonials, then refine.
- Don't be afraid to set a premium price, because you're solving a real problem.

Why This Works:

- Feedback validates your value.
- Pricing premium positions you as an authority and helps you focus on truly committed clients.

Step 5✓: Broadcast Your Success Stories

■Action Step:

- Post mini-case studies, client wins, or personal breakthroughs on LinkedIn or other professional platforms.
- Keep it short, authentic, and consistent.

Why This Works:

- Social proof is rocket fuel for credibility.
- When people see real examples of your impact, they'll trust you (and pay you) more.

■“People pay for clarity, confidence, and convenience.”

All your experiences, failures, successes, setbacks have shaped you into someone who can offer clarity in a specific area. And if you streamline or simplify a problem for them, that's convenience.

■ Competence + Clarity + Confidence + Convenience = Your Monetizable Powerhouse.

How to Start Right Now ■■

■■ Today: Schedule one hour. Write your “Top 3 Achievements, 3 Failures, 3 Lessons,” and identify a recurring problem.

■■ Tomorrow: Draft a simple offer that addresses that problem. Make it valuable, clear, and transformation-focused.

■■ Within a Week: Share your offer with someone or on a platform where your target audience hangs out. Refine as needed.

■ No more excuses—your experiences are assets. This Cheatcode is your permission slip to start using them. Now go!
